

Student Weekly

25/11/2019

What is happening this week?

Summary:

- Year 13 parents evening is next week, make sure you get appointments with all your teachers!
- Good luck to all year 10's and 11's with your mock exams – smash it!!

Get to know... Kamara (deputy head boy)

Favourite food – Black pudding, it has an exquisite taste

First impressions of Highlands – I thought Mr. Goddard was my granddad, which looking back is really funny and strange

Favourite book at the moment – Young Samurai, because I love anime

If you had a superpower what would it be – super speed, but I've already got that

Favourite TV series – Goblin

Best moment at Highlands – my one and a half day relationship – which was a really funny time at Highlands

What have students been up to this week?

Year 12 and 13 politics went to the Houses of Parliament on Friday as part of their unit 1 studies

Donations are welcome for the Enfield foodbank, every morning from 11th November to 19th

Revision Help!!

- Watch short videos on the topic - this is especially helpful when you are confused about a topic, YouTube has every type of video to help with your learning!
- Sticky notes - these are helpful for learning facts about topics such as dates or statistics, stick them around your house to remind yourself of the fact every time you do something!

Form Debate Topic:
Can animal testing be justified?

Societies

There are going to be society meetings in the next few weeks, if you are part of a society make sure you keep an eye out for any information about when the meetings are going to be.

The societies are:

- Unite
- Environment
- Events Management
- Charity

“It always seems impossible until it’s done”
- Nelson Mandela
